President's Message

Welcome to the Arizona Watercolor Association!

Celebrating 66 years, 1960-2026

Your existing 2025 board of directors was voted back in at our November meeting. I will start the new year off with a call for volunteers. There are several positions that the present holders would like to see replacements come forward this year. We are searching for a new President, Treasurer, Membership chair and member program director. If anyone is interested in pursuing one of these offices or others, you can use this year to learn what the position entails and then take over at the beginning of 2027 or even sooner. Think about it and contact me or any board member. If you don't know who they are look at your newsletter for the list.

Our 65-year committee has been active over the last several months working on the publication to celebrate our 65th anniversary. We are making headway and as of this printing of our newsletter we have lots of spots left. 65 artists will be featured in the book, and it will be on a first come first served basis to be in the book. ALL members are eligible. One artist per page and we will be limiting it to the first 65 AWA member artists. We know the holidays put a dent in all our pocketbooks, so we have extended the deadline to enter. See the entry form on the website for all the details.

The Robert Oliver paintings I received from the Oliver family did not sell at the Architects Gallery showing in November. I will continue to advertise them for sale in the Architectural community and if anyone is interested in purchasing a Robert Oliver Painting please contact me and I will send you copies of the images and pricing. Remember it all goes to the AWA Robert Oliver scholarship fund.

We are starting this year off on a solid financial footing and that is due to your support in paying your dues and entering our 3-day workshops and supporting our membership programs each year. The Western Federation of Watercolor Societies (WFWS) entries are now open, more info in this newsletter. We are all automatic members of WFWS by being a member of AWA. Remember you can't win if you don't play. Also, your AWA Spring show is coming soon. And your 2025 Fall show was a hit. Get painting!

This is AWA's opportunity for you to showcase your artistic talent. The committee has received paintings from a wide variety of watermedia compositions, we still have room for more.

When your online entry is received, you will get an information packet with publication details. A fee of $150 buys one page showcasing one of your paintings, your choice. This fee offsets the cost of publication.

Participants receive eight (8) copies of the book to distribute as they see fit.

The deadline is February 16, 2026 -- but entries received sooner will allow the graphic designer time to coordinate the books pages.

MEMBER WORKSHOPS FOR 2026

By Karen Gray
AWA Member Workshop Chair

In February, Linda Pullinsi's workshop "Water Reflections in Watercolor" will illustrate using watercolor to capture reflections of light in water as seen in lakes and streams. Capture the transparency of the water while staying true to your chosen color harmony. Stunning landscapes will surely be our result. Linda is an award-winning artist who has taught courses in painting at local venues. She is an excellent instructor.

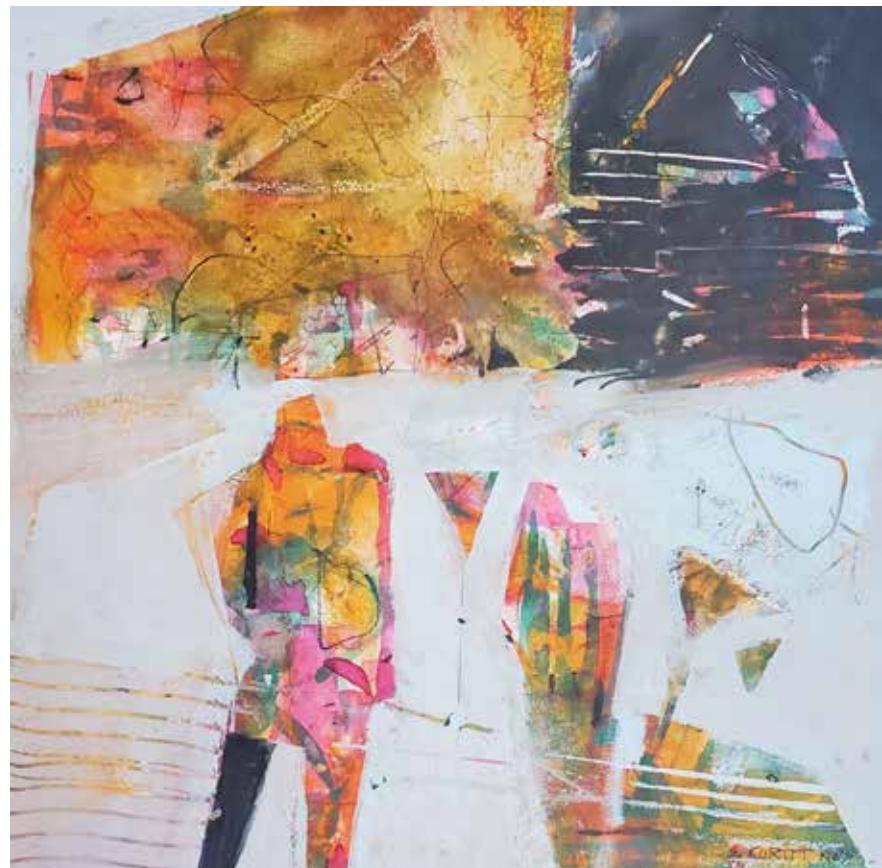

In March, AWA's noteworthy and nationally recognized abstract artist, Stan Kurth, will conduct his workshop titled "Intuitive Painting Mindset" for abstract art. Everyone's creativity will be energized. Turn your right brain on and feel the artist deep inside you.

Using various mark-making tools, watercolor, and gouache, lessons will begin without reference or preconceived ideas. You'll create paintings from arbitrary design elements and bring them to completion using principles of design. The goal is to develop a painting that aligns with your personal aesthetic—whether representational or nonobjective. The only criteria: no reference, and a willingness to let the process guide the outcome.

You can find the registration opportunity for all workshops on the AWA website under Member Workshops. You will be able to complete the registration conveniently online with your credit card.

Thank You to Cindy Welch

In November the AWA member workshop featured Cindy Welch as the artist instructor. While she resides primarily in Colorado, we are fortunate in having her part time in Arizona. Cindy is a highly recognized artist who has won numerous awards. She is also an experienced instructor who conducts workshops both in person and online. Her planning and helpful teaching style was evident during the class.

The shared reference photo featured pine cones nested among snow covered branches. Cindy coached the participants in her step-by-step process of painting the image. Techniques included initially using masking on all of the snowy areas, and then applying soft layers of color, and finally following up with fine tuning on the branches and pine cones. All the talented AWA members in attendance successfully met the challenge. It was a fun day with good company.
